

Building Vehicles That Roll (Young Engineers)

What if you are in your office minding your business and you receive news that a very dangerous man is in your midst? And then what if a world class dictator walks in? There are things in life you cannot ignore. For a bunch of motley characters, the unexpected event is the strangest, funniest manhunt on the Equator. Then he barged straight in, full of anticipation... There was a small man, slightly balding and in his late forties or early fifties, looking into the very wide mirror on the wall. He turned... without saying anything to identify himself, but his eyes were on him away. They were so nervous they looked as if they were about to crack like glass... Then the small man put his hand into his shirt pocket. At that moment, a man in his twenties walked into the washroom, whistling a tune casually. The small man froze and took his hand out of his pocket. It was empty... Then he turned to the mirror and pretended that there was something in his eye.

'I love the Gray Man' Lee Child The Gray Man is back in another nonstop international thriller from #1 New York Times bestselling co-author Tom Clancy's Jack Ryan novels Court Gentry is back in action. This time he's working on behalf of a well-connected group of Syrian expats to secure the Syrian president's mistress so they can use her to bring down the president's regime. But the expats' plan goes awry when they discovered the mistress has a baby--the Syrian president's only male heir--hidden away in a Damascus safe house. Court goes after the boy, a decision that comes at the price of the mistress's life. The expat organization deems the boy now useless to their cause and refuses to help him against the Syrian first lady and the notorious Swiss assassin in her employ. With no support on the way, Court realizes he'll have to take on the Syrian president himself if he and the boy are going to make it out alive... Sometimes Like Dimes: Life and Life Lessons in the Steel City is about Thom Slofer, and chronicles his experiences growing up and becoming older in the Hill District neighborhood of Pittsburgh Pennsylvania, USA. The story begins in September of 1985 and culminates in Atlanta Georgia in 1997. During this time period the people, life passages, and the changing surroundings are described as they affect him. The Hill was a thriving inner-city neighborhood. World-famous jazz musicians once played in the ballrooms and jazz clubs nightly; the Hill District was to Pittsburgh what Harlem is to New York City. Hard economic times before and after the 1980's hit the once economically thriving black community at the foot of downtown Pittsburgh hard. The Hill was now nothing more than a snapshot of economic demise. The successes and setbacks through his high school years and into his young adult life are chronicled. Older women he became involved with showed him a way to be despite peer and neighborhood influences. He graduates high school to attend college but drops out and obtains a reasonable education. The streets and their influences are present. He becomes a part-time bartender then begins to carry a gun before losing his job and succumbing to a loss of self-esteem. He's then forced to survive on the streets but refuses to take part in any crime. He rises above and eventually beyond the lessons "street life" taught stayed within him. His views of life and relationships begin to change and street life loses its luster. Thom gets a good job and returns to school. He first finds difficulty in merely trying to attend then more difficulty when he does. Thom makes his way through school to graduate and attempts to seek a new life in Atlanta Georgia. Sometimes Like Dimes: Life and Life Lessons in the Steel City not only demonstrates that if every man were to write a book about his experiences every story would be unique; but is also a lens to view what it is like to live life in Southwestern Pennsylvania, USA.

What if a powerful ruthless American corporate C.E.O. joined forces with a radical Islamic group to accelerate their mutual blood-thirsty interests? Could this unholy alliance represent a potential backdoor opportunity for terrorists to gain access to America's heartland? If so, could a young vibrant woman within that same corporation possibly hold the keys to limiting the destruction caused by the radicals and their corporate benefactor? Will she live long enough to see her efforts succeed? These are questions asked by the debut novel Gold Watch by C Raymond Taylor, a fast-paced thriller that builds suspense and intrigue from its opening pages. Pharmacor, a Cleveland, Ohio based pharmaceutical company, is the setting for a deadly undeclared chess match of wits between the omnipotent and arrogant CEO Jonas Trina, and Holland Brittany Matthews, a human resources employee who attempts to stop his horrific plot.

Boys' Life is the official youth magazine for the Boy Scouts of America. Published since 1911, it contains a proven mix of news, nature, sports, history, fiction, science, comics, and Scouting.

The two authors have been travelling around Cappadocia since 1986 and by now have found another home in the pottery town of Avanos. They are fascinated by the archaic landscape: semi-desert, semi-oasis, almost paradise-looking green valleys surrounded by fairy-like rock formations. For milleniums, people have lived here in comfortable cave dwellings. The early Christians took refuge in the secluded beauty of Cappadocia, decorating their cave churches with valuable frescoes and making church history. For centuries, Christians and Muslims lived side by side by the foot of the almost 4000 m high Erciyes volcano in one of the most fantastic erosion landscapes on earth. Cappadocia - a region where you can still feel like an explorer - provided you are curious enough. Wherever you go, you can feel history here. This guide provides a wealth of information, and many a little story will put you in the right mood for the enchanting cultural landscape. You will also find all the important travel tips for Turkey and Cappadocia, walks with detailed descriptions, a short dictionary of all the necessary vocabulary and more than 100 photos and 30 local area maps. Traces the development of diners, motels, drive-in movies, gas stations, miniature golf courses, supermarkets, and auto showrooms and examines the ways their architectural designs have changed

Dynamics and Optimal Control of Road Vehicles uniquely offers a unified treatment of tyre, car and motorcycle dynamics, and the application of nonlinear optimal control to vehicle-related problems within a single book. This is a comprehensive and accessible text that emphasises the theoretical aspects of vehicular modelling and control. The book focuses on two major elements. The first is classical mechanics and its use in building vehicle and tyre dynamics models. The second focus is nonlinear optimal control, which is used to solve a range of minimum-time and minimum-fuel, as well as track curvature reconstruction problems. As is known classically, all of this material is bound together by the calculus of variations and stationary principles. The treatment of this material is supplemented with a number of examples that were designed to highlight obscurities and subtleties in the theory.

Even if you've never touched a 3D printer, these projects will excite and empower you to learn new skills, extend your current abilities, and awaken your creative impulses. Each project uses a unique combination of electronics, hand assembly techniques, custom 3D-printed parts, and software, while teaching you how to think through and execute your own ideas. Written by the founder of Printrbot, his staff, and veteran DIY authors, this book of projects exemplifies the broad range of highly personalized, limit-pushing project possibilities of 3D printing when combined with affordable electronic components and materials. In Make: 3D Printing Projects, you'll: Print and assemble a modular lamp that's suitable for beginners--and quickly gets you incorporating electronics into 3D-printed structures. Learn about RC vehicles by fabricating--and driving--your own sleek, shiny, and fast Inverted Trike. Model a 1950s-style Raygun Pen through a step-by-step primer on how to augment an existing object through rapid prototyping. Fabricate a fully functional, battery-powered screwdriver, while learning how to tear down and reconstruct your own tools. Get hands-on with animatronics by building your own set of life-like mechanical eyes. Make a Raspberry Pi robot that rides a monorail of string, can turn corners, runs its own web server, streams video, and is remote-controlled from your phone. Build and customize a bubble-blowing robot, flower watering contraption, and a DIY camera gimbal. Packed full of 100 creative and engaging activities for young children with special educational needs, this book enables you to have fun and enjoy developing your child's skill-based learning with them. From building biscuit construction sites and rainbow ice towers to playing dentists, nail salons and post office workers, the variety and creativity featured on every page of this book means you'll never have a dull day with your child again! With activities for rainy days, in the garden, on walks and more, there's something new to learn wherever you go. With charming black and white line illustrations to depict each activity, this is a great way to connect with your children with SEN, while building their life skills at the same time.
