Secrets of a 16-year Full-Time Seller and Pioneering Power Seller: Have you sold some items but are looking for more to sell? Are you looking to expand your eBay business but don't know where to start? This is NOT a garbage book written by someone with little or no eBay experience describing what eBay is and what an eBay business is! I have made a full-time living selling on eBay since 1998. I started selling on eBay in my college dorm room. Within 2 years, I had made enough money to cover 2 years of Ivy League college tuition. I was one of the pioneering Powersellers. In the nearly two decades of selling on eBay, I have been through, and survived many economic booms and busts. I am now moving further into the countryside and semi-retiring from eBay selling. In this book, I will reveal all my closely guarded secrets to selling on eBay including: my best retail sources, how to maximize profits using retail arbitrage, how to find deals from both online and brick and mortar stores, how to reduce risk and shipping costs. This book is NOT for eBay novices! This book assumes the reader has some knowledge of selling on eBay. The ideas in this book apply to all sellers. The details apply to US-based sellers.This book is NOT a get-rich quick scheme.Selling on eBay is easy. But it can also be hard. If everyone could get rich selling on eBay, everyone would be doing it!I will not build castles in the air for you! I will not tell you that you can make money on eBay by selling unspecified items from unspecified wholesalers.I will not give you a list of toys and tell you to go on Craigslist to find them.I will not claim that I work two hours a day selling on eBay and make thousands a month. (Come ON! Get real.)Selling on eBay is a BUSINESS and I have been in this business long enough to know that there are no guarantees, regardless of past performances. Instead, I will give you the TOOLS to help you find products and to TOOLS to help you maximize your profits on eBay. Unlike other eBay authors, I do not recommend buying stock wholesale to resell on eBay. I will explain why in this book. I do not look for items to sell at garage sales or storage auctions. Finding a niche market is great, but I will show why you do not need to have a niche to make money on eBay. Instead I will show you how to maximize profits with tricks on how to get the best deals on NEW Items from retail sources like Staples, Kohls, Target and MORE!  SOME OF THE TRICKS REVEALED IN THIS BOOK ARE NOT FOR THE FAINT OF HEART  I provide many tools, secrets and tips in this book and hope that it will help you to thrive on eBay in good times and survive in bad times. What's your eBay story?My name is Nick Vulich. Over the years I have had the opportunity to work with and talk to hundreds of eBay sellers. Some of them were brand new to eBay others have been selling for ten years or more now. Every one of them has a unique story about how they got started selling on eBay, and about what they expect to take away from it. Many people I know embraced eBay because it gave them a real opportunity to start their own businesses with little or no risk, other than the time they invested. A lot of parents have looked at eBay as a chance to stay home with their children and be with them as they are growing up. For others, eBay has supplemented a lifetime of low wage jobs, or has given them hope after being laid off from a lifetime career in corporate America. Some have used their eBay businesses as a stepping stone to other careers. Many have become consultants or experts in the product lines that they started selling on eBay. Some have become instructors helping other people to start and operate successful online businesses. For me, eBay gave me extra money to buy new cars and a bigger house when I was working. After a corporate layoff in 2004, selling on eBay gave me the opportunity to build a strong and solid business of my own. Over the last year eBay has become my stepping stone to a new career in writing, and helping other people learn how to start selling on eBay. Discover ten tips that will help you grow your eBay business. - 1) How to build your brand 2) Why you need to experiment with new products 3) Why automating everyday tasks will make your eBay business run smoother 4) Why price doesn't matter 5) Why free shipping might not be the answer 6) Why you need to have fun with your work 7) How selling for charity with eBay Giving Works can help you build sales 8) Why what numbers really matter if you want to make a profit 10) Why you need to make time for yourself! Learn why you need a Plan B => you remember Woolworth's, Grants, Circuit City, Commodore 64, or have you paid attention to what's happening to Blockbuster Video? eBay is currently the big kid on the block, but that can change - quickly. If you've ever read an article about eBay, you will have seen the kinds of incomes people make - it isn't unusual to hear of people making thousands of dollars per month on eBay. Next time you're on eBay, take a look at how many Powersellers there are: you'll find quite a few. Now consider that every single one of one of them must be making at least $1,000 per month, as that's eBay's requirement for becoming a PowerSeller. Silver Powersellers make at least $3,000 each month, Gold Powersellers make more than $10,000, Platinum Powersellers make more than $25,000, and Titanium Powersellers make at least a whopping $150,000 in sales every month! The fact that these people exist gives you some idea of the income possibilities here. Most of them never set out to even set up a business on eBay - they simply started selling a few things, and then kept going. There are plenty of people whose full-time job is selling things on eBay, and some of them have been doing it for years now. Can you imagine that? Once they've bought the stock, everything else is pretty much pure profit for these people - they don't need to pay for any business premises, staff, or anything else. There are multi-million pound businesses making less in actual profit than eBay Powersellers do. Even if you don't want to quit your job and really go for it, you can still use eBay to make a significant second income. You can pack up orders during the week and take them down to the post office for delivery each Saturday. There are few other things you could be doing with your spare time that have anywhere near that kind of earning potential. What's more, eBay doesn't care who you are, where you live, or what you look like: some Powersellers are very old, or very young. Some live out in the middle of nowhere where selling on eBay is one of the few alternatives to farming or being very poor. eBay tears down the barriers to earning that you would expect to find in other jobs. The only job you can't do on eBay is sex work, but you can do it. Put this way: if you know where to get something reasonably cheaply that you could sell, then you can sell it on eBay - and since you can always get discounts for bulk at wholesale, that's not exactly difficult. Buy a job lot of something in-demand cheaply, sell it on eBay, and you're making money already, with no set-up costs. If you want to dip your toe in the water before you commit to actually buying anything, then you can just sell things that you're getting rid of in the house. Search through that cupboard of stuff you never use, and you'll probably find you've got a few hundred dollars' worth of stuff lying around in there! This is the power of eBay: there is always someone who wants what you're selling, whatever it might be, and since they've come looking for it, you don't even need to do anything to get them to buy it. So you want to get started on eBay? Well, that's great! There are only a few little things you need to learn to get started. Read on!
