Un prezioso divano liberty da sistemare, un'asola senza bottone proprio su quell'introvabile tailleur haute couture...ed è subito panico. Chi chiamare? Da chi andare? Di chi mi posso fidare ciecamente? Non c'è pubblicità o annuncio che ci possa convincere o rassicurare: quando teniamo davvero a qualcosa ci affidiamo sempre e solo al consiglio di chi ha provato, meglio se è un amico, ancor più se è fidato. Allora, perchè non riunire tutti gli indirizzi utili ma ignoti ai più? Ecco una minuziosa raccolta di piccole realtà che risolvono quotidiane sacature. Indirizzi nascosti e quasi segreti che sfuggono anche a internet ma che ci sussurriamo a vicenda perchè rari. Un Ebook utile da avere sempre con sé e, in più, un gesto che fa del bene. Il ricavato di questo Ebook andrà devoluto in beneficenza all'Associazione per i Bambini Lebbrosi di Calcutta di Dominique Lapierre che, ispirandosi alla figura di Madre Teresa di Calcutta, dal 1981 salva migliaia di bambini ogni anno, regalando sorrisi e ridando una speranza alla popolazione più povera e bisognosa dell'India.

The complete record of the Second Congress of the Communist International, newly translated & fully annotated. This gathering, held in Petrograd (Leningrad) & Moscow in 1920, set the new International's political course. The debate among delegates from 37 countries gives a gripping portrayal of social struggles & working-class movements in the era of the Russian revolution. Essential to the documentary record of the international labor movement, this volume is the latest in the acclaimed series THE COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL IN LENIN'S TIME. It makes available for the first time in English the complete proceedings of the Communist International's first four congresses, held between 1919 & 1922. They are the starting point for any study of the origins of the modern communist movement. "Brings together an excellent choice of important & revealing documents....This collection & the entire series will be important resources for any library of 20th-century history" -Robert V. Daniels, editor, A DOCUMENTARY HISTORY OF COMMUNISM; Other volumes: "Lenin's Struggle for a Revolutionary International -Documents, 1907-1916: The Preparatory Years. "The German

This volume includes an appendix, containing entries from "Albert the Great" to "Xenophon," a thematic outline of contents, bibliographies, and an index to the reference set.

Isaac Casaubon (1559-1614) was one of Europe's greatest Protestant scholars during the late Renaissance and was renowned for his expert knowledge of the early history of the church. Today, however, most of Casaubon's books remain unread, and much of his vast archive remains unexplored. Grafton and Weinberg's close examination of his papers reveal for the first time that Casaubon's scholarship was broader and richer than anyone has previously suspected, and they present a Casaubon not found in earlier literature: one who used Jewish materials to illuminate, and at times to transform, scholars' understanding of early Christianity; and one who, at the end of his life, worked with a little-known Jewish scholar in order to master parts of the Talmud, which few Christians could study on their own. Most importantly, this book shows that a Christian scholar of the European Renaissance could explore and develop striking sympathy and affection for the alien world and worship of the Jews.

Stalinist henchman, Soviet spy, celebrated 'defector' to the West, and central character in the greatest KGB deception ever, this is the true story behind 'General Alexander Orlov', the man who never was, now uncovered for the first time.

This book traces the clandestine Comintern activities of the German communist Arthur Ewert and his associates during the 1920s and 1930s. It describes through the lives of its participants the founding, expansion, and the collapse of a revolutionary institution unique in contemporary history. An ambitious politician who fell short of his goals in the communist party of his own country, Ewert's strengths and weaknesses reflect the human condition of those who served the Comintern as an exposed vanguard in its existence between the two great wars.
